

I feel the no call list should be left as it is and not allow any business exempt from this list. If one business type is allowed to call people on the no call list where does it stop. When I am home I do not want to be bothered by calls that I do not solicit. This is a basic right I should have.